Between the bellow mentioned buyer and seller the following is agreed:

1. The buyer has 2 years of right to invoke lack of conformity for any heritable defect or heritable deceases of important meaning for the dogs health and wellbeing, as long as they are proven congenital (veterinarian consult) or arose when still living with the breeder. In such case the full price is returned if it is necessary to euthanize the dog due to the defect(s).
2. In case the dog within it's first year of living, turns out to have visible breeding disqualifying defects, half the price is refunded. Such dog may not be used for breeding.
3. If the presence of cryptorchism or monorchism in a male dog is diagnosed around 18 months of age, half the price or any expenses (maximum is half the prize) for surgery of the misplaced testickle(s) are refunded to the owner, if the operation is found necessary for the dogs wellbeing(veterinarians opinion). Such case should be reported back to the breeder before surgery and such surgery should be chosen in agreement with the breeder.
4. The hips of the dog must be x-rayed between 18-24 months of age and the pictures send to DKK for valuation (or the national kennel club). If thescore is worse than HD=B, half the price is refunded. If the dog is crippled due to HD, the full amount of the price is refunded or a new dog is offered.
5. The elbows of the dog must be x-rayed between 18-24 months of age and the pictures send to DKK for valuation (or the national club). If the score is worse than AD=1, half the price is refunded. If the dog is crippled due to AD, the full price of the price is refunded or a new dog is offered.

6. In case of breeding, the buyer must only breed the dog with a dog having an official HD score not worse than B and an official AD score not worse than 1. The dog is only allowed to be bred with dogs possessing a 4 generations pedigree approved by the FCI.
7. In case the dog has defects that trigger a refund, the dog must obviously not be used for breeding. Normally a refund is only given for one defect and can maximally be equal to the price given for the dog initially. In case of refund for any reason mentioned in the contract the registration fee is deducted from price before the refund.
8. The buyer is not allowed to sell the dog, euthanize or pass the dog on to others, without consulting the breeder first. In such case the breeder stands first to buy the dog back for its current value. If the owner and dog moves to a new address the breeder should be informed about the new address as soon as possible.
